MY NEW YEAR'S PRAYER

Dear Lord, I do not ask for my life to be trouble free, For I know this is not how life is to be.

I do not ask that you should make my way smooth, But I do ask that You would help me remove

From my life ways that may be unbecoming to you, Please Lord, help me this to do.

I do not ask of you the strength to meet whatever may come my way, and please guide my steps day by day.

Help me to be to all I meet a friend, in word, in deed.

I know sadness and trails must be a part of life, that if not for these times of trails and strife,

I might not feel the need of Your presence in my life, and I do so much want and need the guidance of Jesus Christ.

I ask His love be mine for all I meet, so that even those I may meet upon the street,

Will see in me something they will want for themselves, this something they will never find anywhere else.

It is the peace that only Christ can give, this peace is what helps me live.

Above the hurts and trails of this old world, nothing can take this peace from me, no matter what upon me is hurled.

So this is my prayer for this New Year, that You, Lord, will be with me always near.

And that the love You have for me will be a part of my very being that this others in me can see.
